

Preswick Glen Welcomes First Residents

Newly opened Preswick Glen is now home to over 45 families. People are moving in to take advantage of a stress-free lifestyle, and to have more time to do the things they enjoy. It is nice to see residents sharing experiences with each other. Penny Cammiso, who was our first resident to move in said, "It's surprising how much we all have in common."

Residents really enjoy the very spacious apartments and cottages, as well as the community center, which is the hub of socialization. Everyone enjoys chatting while dining at The Glen Ivy and The Bistro, and is raving about the delicious food. The library with the double sided fireplace is a real gathering place. Many of our residents have enjoyed leisurely afternoons sitting by the fireplace reading some of the many books supplied by the Mid York Library System, and others donated by residents.

Preswick Glen offers a variety of activities for our residents. Listed right are the latest tours that will be offered for 2008. Call us to learn more about these upcoming trips and remember, you do not have to be a Preswick Glen resident to make a reservation on one of the excursions. Our tours are open to all who enjoy traveling and meeting new people.

Congratulations Roy!

Roy Dancer has been an integral part of the Presbyterian Home Campus for nearly two decades. He has served as board president, and also volunteers his time twice a month to entertain the residents with his Music with Roy program. And, his volunteering does not stop at Presbyterian Home; he also works at the Yorkville Fire Department.

Recently Roy was chosen to be the recipient of the Recognition Award given in appreciation for his 20 years of service to the Village of Yorkville.

In 2006, Roy and his wife Shirley, who also volunteers at the Home, were awarded the "Volunteers of the Year Award" by the Oneida County Office for the Aging.

Thank you both for the many hours of service and care you give our community.
